Establishment of a state bonding fund under the direction of the state insurance commission is contemplated by a bill offered in the senate by O. A. Naplin, nonpartisan leader.

Wife Locked Up in Lieu of "Spanking"

Chicago, Feb. 1.—Spanking isn't being done in Chicago's best circles, especially when the victim happens to be a comely young married woman.

That was the explanation given by William B. Kluge, president of the Racine Tire & Rubber company, and police officials, of why Mrs. Ethel Kluge was confined in the county psychopathic hospital.

Mrs. Kluge was detained at the hospital as a substitute for a "good spanking," Dr. Florence Fowler, house physician, said.

According to the story told police, Mrs. Kluge borrowed money from women with whom she played bridge.

PARTIAL RETURNS FROM FIRST FARM REFERENDUM VOTE

CARRIED OUT BY MINNESOTA FARM BUREAU FEDERATION, 3 MEASURES UP

MARKETING METHODS PENDING IN LEGISLATURE UPHELD BY THE FARMERS

(United Press)

St. Paul, Feb. 1.—Only partial returns have been received from the first farmer referendum conducted in the senate, but enough to show the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation has thrown its support to three measures involving marketing methods now pending in the legislature.

As a result of the referendum representatives of the State federation will appear at a joint house and senate committee hearing tonight and tomorrow night to urge passage of the public marketing bill "compelling boards of trade to admit farm selling agencies to membership as co-operative associations, and the future dealing bill which defines gambling contracts in selling of wheat and other grain and farm products as illegal and provides for enforcement of the act by a fine or jail sentence.

The state federation also announced support of a resolution requiring the board of grain appeals to restore the Minnesota grain grades in place of the present federal grades.

Returns from the counties that have reported in response to the farm bureau federation's call for a state wide referendum, were unanimous in their support of the grain marketing and the board of trade bills. Only one county farm bureau voted in opposition to reestablishment of Minnesota grain grades.

Polling of farmer sentiment on the bills is still under way in many counties. Farm bureaus are referring the measure to special meetings of township organizations. Returns received up to today convinced officials of the state federation however that the 55,000 members of the organization in Minnesota are virtually a unit in their demand that contracts for future selling of farm products without intention for actual delivery be declared illegal.

Against Speculation

The senate today passed the resolution asking congress to prohibit speculation of farm products. It was introduced by a nonpartisan league member.

(By United Press)

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 1.—The thousands of errors in the return of the Ford-Newberry senatorial contest of 1918 discovered by the senate committee now recounting the votes are not due to irregularity but to carelessness and inefficiency of the local board or inspectors of election, according to Sam Odell, the only member of the 1918 board now in Lansing.

STATE BONUS B'D. MAY BE ABOLISHED SOON BY SOLONS

MEASURE PROPOSED SUGGESTS STATE AUDITOR CONTROL BONUS AFFAIRS

ADVOCATES OF LAW BELIEVE IT WILL PASS SENATE, HOUSE MAY FAVOR IT

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Feb. 1.—Abolishment of the state bonus board on May 1 is provided in a bill introduced in the state senate today by Senator Sam Rask, chairman of the military affairs committee.

The measure suggests that control of soldier bonus affairs would be given the state auditor upon abolishment of the present board.

The bill was referred to Rask's committee which is expected to report favorably on it.

Advocates of the measure today said they believe it would pass the senate and probably meet with favor in the house.

Up to an early hour today no bids had been received by the state auditor for the $4,500,000 issue of state certificates of indebtedness to make bonus payments. The bids, if any are received, are to be opened in the state auditor's office at eleven o'clock the third of February. M. J. Desmond, deputy state auditor, said he expects some bids would be made before Thursday.

M'ADOO MAY HEAD MEXICAN NATIONAL RAILWAY SYSTEM

FORMER U. S. TREASURER NOW IN MEXICO AS GUEST OF PRES. OBREGON

PLAN TO STABILIZE MEXICO FINANCIALLY AND INDUSTRIALLY

(United Press)

Washington, Feb. 1.—Mexico is negotiating with Wm. G. McAdoo to rehabilitate and take charge of her national railroads, it was learned authoritatively here today. McAdoo is now in Mexico as a guest of President Obregon and may stay there indefinitely.

He is accompanied by his wife and Jouett Shouse, former assistant secretary of the treasury, and now one of the officials of the Mexico and Orient railroad, projected between Kansas City, Mo., and Guaymas and Sonora.

The invitation to McAdoo is looked upon here as a move by Obregon to gain recognition from this government. Obregon, it was agreed, realizes he must stabilize Mexico financially and industrially to get such recognition.

With this end in view negotiations were begun with McAdoo as he knows both railroads and finances in government employment to react favorably in this country and in foreign capitals. McAdoo took the suggestion under consideration and it is understood an arrangement calling for employment for several years at a salary of $50,000 a year or greater perhaps may be worked out.

Extraordinary mild weather in January has led the birds to believe spring is here she believes.

RULE WITH ROD OF IRON, SAINTS TO BE CITY HEADS

MISSIONARIES OF ZION CHURCH ZION CITY, LAY DOWN LAW IN NEW YORK

WITH SAINT AS MAYOR NO MORE JAZZ, DANCING, TOBACCO, SILK STOCKINGS, ETC.

(United Press)

New York, Feb. 1.—Rule with a "rod of iron" besides which a blue law regime will look like a rubber wand is in store for America, according to the Misses Helen Rummann and Belle Schelhorn, missionaries from the Zion church, Zion City, Illinois, who are to take New York.

"The time is coming soon," they said, "when all saints now on earth will have put on immortality. Then it is altogether likely that Wilbur Glen Voliva, our overseer, will be appointed to rule over New York as mayor. When that has happened only the wicked will be left and the city will be ruled by a rod of iron."

"What will these people who cringe now at the mention of blue laws be thinking then?"

"New York will not be singled out. Chicago will have another 'saint' as mayor, Des Moines, Minneapolis, Omaha and San Francisco and all the cities in between will be so ruled," they said.

Then there will be no: "Dancing, jazz music, Sunday amusement and Sunday papers, no tobacco, no alcohol, no silk stockings, no peek-a-boo or franker waists and no skirts revealing more than three inches of footwear. All churches will be filled for ten hours every Sunday and for lesser meetings during the week. Oysters will pile up and fatten in their beds and wine will not contribute to the wealth of Chicago—no one will eat them."

Accompanying each picture is a brief account of the artist's life, the significance of the painting and data about the school and period of art to which the artist belongs. The idea behind the scheme is to familiarize the subscribers with some of the best examples of art, which they might not otherwise obtain and which they may eventually wish to own, after having lived with them a short time.

Removing Iron Rust.
 Dampen the spots with water, rub with a lump of citric acid and lay in the sun. If the spots are not gone by the time the cloth is dry, dampen and lay in the sun again. When the fabric is very delicate it is better to dissolve the acid in a little water and dampen the spot with the solution.

HONORED NAME IN MEDICINE

Henry Detwiler, Native of Switzerland, the First to Practice Homeopathy in America.

Among the first, if not the first, to successfully practice homeopathy in America was Henry Detwiler, who was born in Langenbruck, Switzerland, December 18, 1795.

He studied medicine a number of years before he came to this country on a vessel containing 400 French refugees who left their country after the defeat of Napoleon Bonaparte. He was appointed ship physician, and successfully treated an epidemic of dysentery which had broken out during the passage.

Coming to Pennsylvania, he settled in the Lehigh Valley, and gained prominence by treating a large number of people who were attacked with a mysterious disease which he finally diagnosed as bilious colic, resulting from eating apple butter.

He early made a study of the system of medicine founded by Hahnemann, and in 1828 dispensed the first remedy in Pennsylvania, in accordance with the law of similars, and during the remainder of his life was a devoted homeopathist.

Doctor Detwiler formed an intimate acquaintance with Hahnemann, who gave him a wonderful reception in Paris, where he met other noted physicians and scientists. He gave many natural history specimens to various colleges, founded an iron industry and finally died at the advanced age of ninety-two.—Chicago Journal.

'HILL 60' BOUGHT BY BREWER

Hotel May Be Erected on Ground in France That Will Hold Immortal Memories.

"Hill 60," whose record is written in British hearts with the blood of her young army, has been sold to a brewer.

"It is expected," says the London Times, "that a hotel will be erected there. From little round of France."

Spent Money Foolishly

"I have been a great sufferer from stomach trouble and gall stones. No one knows the pains I have suffered. Since taking the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy am feeling fine. I can work all day and eat anything I want. Have no more distress or palpitation of the heart from gas on my stomach. I have spent a great deal of money on doctors and medicine but got nothing to help me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince, or money refunded.—Johnson's Pharmacy.

tal memory to hostility is a fate which may be deplored, but it is possible, even probable, that by an enterprise however foreign to sentiment, all that is associated with the place may be preserved.

"Hill 60," sacred with the memories of Loos and of many a subsequent resurgence of the tide of battle, consecrated as few other spots of earth have been by repeated baptisms of heroic blood, long ceased to be a hill. It was held, as one commanding officer reported, geographically, though its military value had been utterly destroyed.

"The hill" itself was blasted to dust long before the struggles for its possession had ended. Its name will endure as long as British history, and it is perhaps as well that a monument should mark the site of so many heroisms, even if the monument presents a commercial aspect."

Speaking of Eve.
 "Dendrology," says a contemporary, "is an admirable pursuit for women." We seem to remember, however, that one of the earliest feminine arboriculturists made a sad mess of it.

DOESN'T Patrick Henry hit the nail on the head when it comes to judging a bank?

Your grandfather and your father will both tell you that the First National Bank has always used the greatest caution in lending out the money of its depositors.

They will tell you that the hardest of hard times have never affected the strength of this Bank.

Perhaps that is why our deposits show a greater growth during this period of readjustment.

Miss Molgren, the leader of the club, has planned a novel and entertaining program for the meeting. All members are urged to be present.

Enjoyable Masquerade

Thirty couples of a community club, mostly southsiders, had a masquerade at Finnish hall in Southeast Brainerd last Tuesday. Johnson's orchestra played. The costumes worn were very pretty and there was much excitement when the unmasking occurred.

During the fall the club had three parties at Peck's hall in Barrows.

James C. Garrison

The educational conference to be held at the Methodist church on Tuesday, Feb. 8th will be in charge of James C. Garrison, State Superintendent of the Minnesota Sunday School Association.

Mr. Garrison is a newcomer to Minnesota, coming here to take up his present position from a similar position with the North Dakota Sunday School Association.

This conference will have a very vital relation to the work of the churches in the development of their program of religious education as this new advance is recognized by leaders in this field to be one of the next steps in the working out of a more adequate program of religious education for the childhood and youth of America.

Rev. Wm. Bell for several years now director of the work being done by the Presbyterian church on what is called the range parish is the other member of the team. Mr. Bell is one of the outstanding experts in this field, has done some remarkable work and will speak from a rich experience.

The program will open at 3 o'clock p. m., the evening session at 7:30 p. m.

All interested people are invited to attend. The story of the vacation school will be shown on the screen at the evening session.

Presbyterian Aid

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid society will be entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mesdames John Carlson and W. J. Lyons at the home of the former 401 Holly street. A cordial invitation is extended to members and visitors to attend this meeting.

Epworth League

A business meeting of the Epworth League will be held in the Methodist church basement tonight at 8 o'clock sharp. There will be election of officers after which a program will be given.

Lunch will be served after the program after which all new members and officers will be initiated. It is important that all members be present and a hearty invitation is extended to friends.

Resilvering Mirror. It is usually safest to send the mirror to a resilvering works. It may be repaired by making use of another mirror as follows: Clean the bare portions of glass by rubbing gently with fine cotton, taking care to remove any trace of dust and grit. With point of penknife cut upon back of other mirror around a portion of the silvering of required form but a little larger; upon it place a small drop of mercury. The mercury spreads immediately, penetrates the amalgam to where it was cut with the knife, and the required place may be lifted and removed to place to be repaired. Then press lightly the renewed portion with cotton; it hardens almost immediately and the glass will present a uniform appearance.

STOP THAT COUGH

The obstinate cough that settles in the throat, with a gathering of phlegm, is dangerous, especially to children. You can stop the cough and remove the cause of the trouble with one dose of Glessco, which relieves croup in fifteen minutes, without vomiting. It stops cough by carrying the offending mucous right out of the system. At all druggists in 50c bottles.

HAT SHOULD SUIT THE FACE

Woman Who Has Passed Prime Knows There is Certain Type She Should Wear.

"The vintage of 1907," a teacher said the other day in referring to her hat, which some one had been admiring for, having bought a good hat in that far-off time, she has it renovated and renewed every winter. One merit that the hat possesses is that it fits and suits her style, for it becomes more and more difficult for women who have passed their first youth to find hats that are "suited" to them. A favorite milliner makes the same hat over year after year and, while it never loses its look of smartness, it is not in the style. But the woman who has passed her prime knows that there is a certain kind of hat that she must wear. Mrs. Harding is said to have adopted almost exclusively the tricorn shape, which is a very good hat for a woman of her age. One will find that the best-dressed women are those who wear hats that are becoming to them and do not trouble about the latest fashion. The milliner who realizes this will not try to persuade the woman of middle age to wear any of the "stylish" shapes. Can one conceive of anything more pathetic than a woman of middle age with a tam-o'-shanter perched comically upon her hair, unless it happens that the "tam" is the only style that is really becoming to her?

TRAINED MEN GET BEST PAID JOBS

When A. F. Seidl was offered the management of the Union Implement Co., Solon, N. D., he was thankful for his practical course at Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D. So was P. M. pretty dress in brown check taffeta is made with a finely plaited skirt.

The full skirt and tunic on some of the dresses are trimmed with cording. For instance, a navy blue taffeta dress has many rows of cording at the hips and around the lower edge of the wide tunic.

Pin tucks, finely grouped, provide a decorative touch for a dress of navy taffeta, with straight hanging bodice and full skirt, in which the tucks appear as vertical stripes. There is no belt, but the fullness is tied at the sides. The three-quarter sleeves are finished with a puff of the material over an undersleeve of cream lace.

A brown checked taffeta dress made with a long draped bodice and circular tunic has a circular cuff on the sleeves, with a facing of emerald green to match the facing of the collar.

Eyelet embroidery in silk is used to trim some of the taffeta dresses. One striped taffeta is made in chemise style belted with a wide girdle of chambray skin, on which narrow red and black ribbons are applied.

Rosettes of Malines.

Little choux or rosettes of malines are added to one or both shoulders of some of the new evening dresses. Tiny bouquets of flowers or small feathers are used in the same way.

Ostrich Toque.

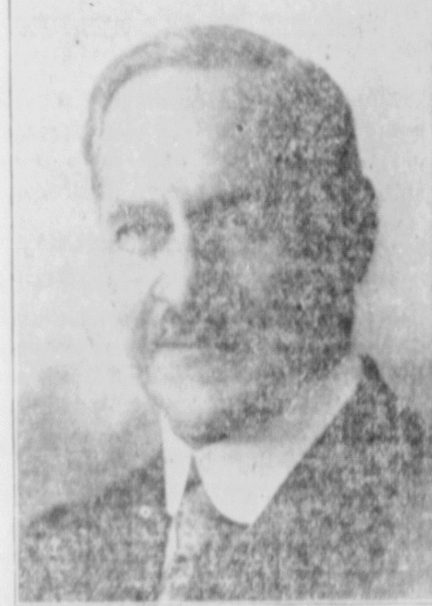

The lovely ostrich toques are quite bewitching when worn over a young face. They are covered with ostrich, the lines almost uncured, quite soft and fluffy in appearance. They are especially pretty in gray.

An Attractive Veil.

An attractive new veil is a fine, plain mesh, with lavish embroidery on the part which is arranged over the hat. It is worn with a plain hat.

Pyeherley is a hard-hearted man. The spirit of Christmas never enters his body; and, indeed, if he has any particularly unpleasant intelligence to convey, he generally manages to save it up for Christmas time.

His wife, however, is different, and last Christmas entered the dining room with a troubled look.

"Oh, John," she said, "Mary just swallowed a shilling! What shall we do?"

Mary, let it be said, occupies the position of maid-of-all-work in the Pyeherley household.

"Do?" repeated the master of the house. "Well, I suppose we'd better let her keep it. She would have expected a Christmas box, anyhow."—London Tit-Bits.

The Tip-Hunter's Guide.

Speaking of tips and tipping, a New York bellhop not long ago formulated a set of rules, a few of which we give below:

Don't waste time on "big bugs."

Show attention on women; if they tip at all, they tip liberally.

Don't persecute tightwads; shame them with faultless service.

Play the honeymooners hard; newlywed men like to make a splurge before their brides.

Don't act ugly when a guest departs without tipping you. Have a heart! Perhaps the office cleaned him out.—Boston Transcript.

Nature's Beauty.

In West Virginia and similar states where the tillable acreage is limited and it is difficult to grow sufficient silage and roughage for dairy cows, the sunflower comes as a great blessing, adding wonderfully to the wealth and industry through the dairy products. It is certainly interesting to note the many hitherto familiar but unattractive products that have been found to be abounding in possibilities of usefulness and wealth.—Thrill Magazine.

SPECIAL GUARDS TO PREVENT LYNCHINGS

(United Press.)

Los Angeles, Feb. 1.—Fear of attempted lynching caused police today to take special precautions in their guard over Floyd L. Carr and Arthur Watson Carr, confessed kidnappers of Mrs. Gladys Witherell.

Extra guards have been thrown around the county jail to block any attempt to remove the prisoners.

Plans to rush the kidnappers to the penitentiary were halted yesterday when Floyd Carr, after both had pleaded guilty, asked that sentence be delayed and a lawyer obtained.

Floyd Carr said he can present mitigating evidence.

Mrs. Witherell was kidnapped a week ago and held for ransom. She was rescued yesterday by police who broke into a shack on a deserted ranch, 70 miles from here where she was kept.

Floyd Carr was arrested in the raid. Arthur Watson Carr had been arrested Sunday night in Los Angeles. Mrs. Witherell had not been harmed. The kidnappers sought fifty thousand dollars ransom.

INSPECTOR INJURED AND WIFE KILLED

(United Press.)

Cork, Feb. 1.—Sinn Feiners killed a woman last night when she waited on the platform of the station at Malloy with her husband, Inspector King.

King was seriously injured.

Professor Wants to Burn All Liberty Bonds

New York, Feb. 1.—Dr. French Johnson, dean of New York university's school of commerce and finance, is willing to furnish the first fuel for a public bonfire of Liberty Bonds. In his opinion they would be a fitting sacrifice on the altar of economic readjustment.

Pointer for the Housewife.

The woman who reduces herself to a frazzle and her family to nervous wrecks does it by trying to do each separate piece of work to perfection. We all like a perfectly appointed household, but it is vastly more important that a home should be comfortable, where the family likes to gather, than that no grain of dust should ever be seen. Housework, done right, is more healthful than almost any other work. Making beds is an excellent exercise for a sluggish liver, but don't forget that a tired housewife may be rested and refreshed by a brisk walk in the fresh air. Fatigue is often caused from bad air, and with the lungs filled with pure air the body is able to throw off the poisons.

Pick out the important things to be done daily and do them, reserving time and strength for these things. The important thing is meals. They mean more to the family than anything else, as they are the fuel which keeps you going.—Exchange.

Oil Prospects in Australia.

Analyses of petroleum gas at Roma, Queensland, have been made which show it to be considerably richer than the gas from most petroleum wells. Using American standards of pressure and temperature in absorption tests, it is estimated that the Roma gas will yield 2 pints of petrol per 1,000 cubic feet. The mines department has decided to continue boring below the gas strata, in the belief that oil will be found. Difficulty in obtaining casing is delaying further boring at Marburg, Queensland. The bore is now over 400 feet down, penetrating sandstones and shales which contain productive coal measures, while tests of a sample of the sludge from the bottom of the bore reveal a small percentage of oil.

Removing Label.

To easily and quickly remove a label from a bottle, wet the face of the label with water and hold for a moment over any convenient flame. The steam formed penetrates the label at once and softens the paste.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Westerners"

"The Westerners," a W. H. Hodgkinson release, is the western picture in a de luxe edition appearing at the New Park theatre. Its locale, as the thousands of readers of the novel will recall, is the Black Hills, in the days of the gold rush, when the white man broke his treaties and forced his way into Pah-sep-pah, the valhalla of the Sioux. The Custer massacre followed and the white man drove the Sioux from the Dakotas. The picture is historically correct in every detail. It is beautiful in scenic effects, swift in lightning in drama, with a comedy. It has been produced without regard to expense, with an all-star cast, among whom are Roy Stewart, Robert Meim, Mildred Manning, and Wilfred Lucas. The director, Edward Sichen, has made a great name for himself by his able handling of this picture.

Vaudeville Tomorrow

Vaudeville opens Wednesday at the New Park and these are the acts scheduled:

The eminent banjoist, A. J. Appleby, has shown himself to be a real musician and he does everything with his instrument but make it talk. E. J. Appleby has a treat for all music lovers. He is known as the king of banjoists, and we see him playing two banjos at the same time with as much ease as he plays one. All his melodies are very pleasing and sweet, being the popular kind that everybody likes.

The Rica Duo—with a wealth of pretty settings, these graceful willowy dancers are seen in a series of songs and dances fast and unique. Both wear many attractively designed gowns. They also have a surprise for the audience at the finish of their turn.

The black face singing and talking act "That's My Hound", Arthur James and Edna Shaw, blackface comedians, have an offering absolutely different from anything ever seen in this part of the country. In their own original idea of southern dialect and original songs and patter. A treat to all lovers of good clean comedy.

Three men comedy singers with exceptional voices, presenting an entirely new and novel singing and talking act, closes the bill.

The photoplay is the new Rex Beach picture, "Going Some", a comedy with thrills.

"Going Some," by Rex Beach, the latest of this author's productions is a story of the eternal antagonism between the cattle ranchers and sheep ranchers of the West. It is humorous and contains many thrills of the kind that lovers of the screen appreciate.

"Madame Peacock"

In "Madame Peacock", the picture she herself has declared her greatest since "Revelation", Nazimova will appear before local motion picture audiences Wednesday and Thursday at the Lyceum theatre.

This latest photoplay, from a story by Rita Weiman, will present the Russian star as Jane Goring, a brilliant stage celebrity who finds the heights of fame somehow do not bring the complete happiness she had imagined.

Written by one of the leading dramatic writers of the day and enacted by undoubtedly the most finished actress in the world, "Madame Peacock" is a masterly and telling portrayal of the soul of a remarkable woman.

At the same time, and later in the story, Nazimova comes to the front in a second character; as Gloria Cromwell, the gifted, nondescript little girl to whom Jane Goring is rather more than a goddess.

At the Lyceum

That the cleverness and wit of good musical comedy can be adequately transferred to the screen was proven at the New Lyceum theatre last evening when "Oh Lady, Lady" opened for a two day's run with Bebe Daniels as the star, Harrison Ford and Walter Hiers in support. "Oh Lady, Lady," it will be remembered, is the very successful Bolton and Wodehouse production which scored such a very tremendous hit only a few years ago.

By adding new scenes and taking advantage of the wider range of the films Edith Kennedy, the scenario, has really added to the play's fun possibilities. She has created a laugh concoction that starts on high speed and stays locked in that gear from the start to the final fadeout.

THE KEY TO THE HEALTH PROBLEM

The spine is a barometer wherein many signs can be read indicating the patient's condition, and even advance signs of probable future disorders.

Chiropractic a New Discovery

While older schools are searching everywhere for the cause of disease, Chiropractors have found at the spine the actual cause of fully 95 per cent of all physical ailments, and that the body cures itself when those causes are removed by adjustment.

Herein lies the reason why Chiropractic has grown to a profession of nearly ten thousand members in less than a quarter century. X-Ray Spiniograph.

Movie Theaters in Rio.

It is at the cinema theaters that the Cariocas (citizens of Rio de Janeiro) know real comfort; for, unlike our moving-picture houses, those in Rio have spacious waiting-rooms, where you sit, listening to excellent music, until the hour for the first reel comes round. The pioneer house of the kind inaugurated this custom, and now the people refuse to stand outside waiting for the even hour to arrive or to enter after the film has started. With so much profitable space taken from the auditorium, the movies in Rio Janeiro are not as great money-makers as with us. The American favorites are popular, quite outclassing Italian and Brazilian film stars.—Harriet Chalmers Adams in National Geographic Magazine.

Inspect Moths by Machine.

An elaborate machine called the choselki is used by the Japanese in the inspection of silkworms for disease. The machine in the inspection house of Nagano prefecture requires 2,000 microscopes and a large corps of workers.

Moths are made to lay their eggs each on one square of sheets of cardboard bearing 28 numbered squares. They then are killed, their bodies pulverized and examined. If the bacilli are found, the square containing the eggs laid by the diseased moths is cut out and burned.—Japan Advertiser.

6 YEAR BOY IS ALMOST DROWNED

Early Morning Before School Fell In to Excavation Filled With Water Near 6th Street Playground

ERLAK IN WATER MAIN THERE

Little Myrtle Dougherty Grasped his Hand and Held Struggling Lad Until Help Came

A little boy and a little girl figured as principals in a near tragedy Tuesday morning on South Sixth street near the school playground where the water main has broken and formed a deep pool, the hole having been made deeper by excavation work to find the break.

Micky Landray, age 6, slipping and sliding on the street, fell into the hole. Weighted down with a heavy overcoat, he floated for a minute and then splashed around vainly trying to scale up the steep sides. The little fellow needed all his reserve power to stay afloat and was first observed by little Myrtle Dougherty as she was going to school.

Myrtle leaned far over the brink and grabbed one hand of the boy and held him while she called for help. A southsider heard the faint cries and yelled encouragement to the girl not to let go and then pulled both to the bank. Little Micky was tilted up and water drained out of him. First aid worked considerable more water and dirt out of him and when he had regained his breath the citizen took the bedraggled child home, second floor of 416 South Sixth street, where his grandmother changed the clothes for him.

The hole is a danger spot and during the night carried a red lantern attached to the excavation dirt. In daytime, however, there was no danger mark up, no railing around it and this is especially careless as it is directly adjacent the Lincoln or Sixth street school playground. The citizen promptly notified the water and light board to fence up the hole.

PERSONAL TALKS

I find it impossible to talk direct to all of you so I shall try to do so through these letters. There is no question in my mind as to the need of a man's thorough understanding of what Old Line Insurance, such as the Mutual of New York, really is.

Firstly—as a preacher says “Nine out of ten people say they can't afford it”. Right here I claim you are shifting the responsibility to your wife and babies. Rather than make a sacrifice of say from $2 to $5 per month, you are willing that the wife and babies assume all the risk of their own future when you are gone.

If you owned a building bringing you an income of $100 per month and it was located where it was sure to burn sometime would you jeopardize this by not carrying insurance on it? “No!” “Why?” Because it would hit you personally and you would have to slave a long time to make up this $10,000 property in case of a loss, yet only 13 out of 1000 buildings burn, and every mother's son of us must die. But as I said before we are not willing to take the risk where it will hit us, but are perfectly willing to have our wives and babies take ten times the risk.

What gets me is how a man can stand before God and his friends and row that he will love and honor his sweetheart so long as they shall BOTH live; and then spend all the money he makes while he is given health and strength without looking to the future.

A small deposit every month will make your home safe in the future whether you are here or not.

Next letter will deal with “Fits and Misfits.”

Sincerely,

D. D. SCHRADER

In a fast, but one sided basketball game Friday the local high first team went down to defeat at the hands of the speedy St. Cloud five by a score of 34-12.

The orange and black machine of the down river team worked with clock-like precision and their snappy passing game completely baffled the local blue and white basketballers.

To pick an individual star from the St. Cloud line-up is practically impossible for, as emphasized above, it was team play that returned the orange and black victors.

J. M. MANNAFORD'S CONDOLENCE

Vice Chairman of Board of Directors of Northern Pacific Pays Tribute to Aged Engineer

An unusually large number of people representing the different interests of Brainerd's civic commercial and fraternal life attended the funeral of the late Adam Brown on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The First National bank of which Mr. Brown was one of the first directors was represented by Geo. D. LaBar and F. A. Farrar, and the legal profession was represented by Hon. W. S. McClenahan.

An exceptionally large and representative group of Brainerd's civic commercial and fraternal life attended the funeral of the late Adam Brown on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Early in the afternoon, Mr. LaBar received the following telegram in which a fine tribute is paid to the deceased by one who rose high in the ranks of the employees of the Northern Pacific Railway Company:

“Regret that delay in returning from Eastern trip made it impossible for me to be present at the last rites to my old friend Adam Brown whose loyal devotion to the Northern Pacific has been an example to all us employees for more than forty-five years. Please extend my sympathy to the family and friends, J. M. Hannaford.”

The services at the home were in charge of Rev. S. M. Kelly of the Presbyterian church who read the lessons and offered a helpful and timely discourse. Rev. Fred Errington of the First Congregational church read a brief portion of the OddFellow's burial service and offered the concluding prayer.

Those who gathered for these last rites felt, as people ever feel at such times, that those who blaze the trail, as the pioneers in new territory, are worthy of the highest respect of which the human heart is capable, for in a very definite sense we reap what they so nobly sowed.

Mr. Brown by his industry, honesty and integrity helped to establish the city which has now reached almost 10,000 inhabitants and was present at the initiation of at least two institutions which have grown to large proportions, i. e., the Northern Pacific Railroad's holdings in this city and the First National bank.

ST. CLOUD WON 34-13

game was scarcely a minute old, Moe, captain, caging a free throw.

The first half ended with the score 13-6 with St. Cloud in the lead. It is due to lack of team work and knowledge of trick plays that the local team was unable to bring home the bacon in the game with the neighboring team.

A word must be said of St. Cloud's defense which the local team was unable to penetrate, with the result that the local boys could only try long shots.

Ray Engbretson, who has been out of the line-up for the past two weeks was back in uniform. Captain Welsh and Engbretson each caged two baskets while Shello came up with one.

For St. Cloud, Ernst and Zierben each caged five baskets and Siminiski and Barrett coming next having three baskets apiece to their credit. Capt. Moe made four out of eight free throws.

The line-up:

Brainerd St. Cloud
Welsh (Capt.) Siminiski
Erickson Zierben
Lagerquist (Capt.) Moe
Shello Ernst
Thoe Barrett

Summary—Substitutes: Brainerd, Engbretson for Erickson; Erickson for Lagerquist; Hendrickson for Thoe. Free throws: Brainerd Welsh 2 out of 5; St. Cloud Moe 4 out of 8. Field goals: Brainerd Engbretson 2, Welsh 2, Shello 1; St. Cloud Ernst 5, Zierben 5, Barrett 3, Siminiski 3.

Referee, Hollands University of Minnesota; Scorer, L. Jones Brainerd; Timekeeper, Gemmell, Brainerd.

A big word of praise must be given the second team of the local high school, although their big brothers, who are classed as superior to them, were defeated. The midgits brought half the bacon home with them by a 12 to 8 score.

Outweighed in every position and outplayed in all parts of the game, the Blue and White second team by excellent marksmanship and teamwork are still able to carry a clean slate with them as they have yet to taste defeat. This victory makes it four straight.

In the first half, the local boys were unable to score but one basket and one free throw while St. Cloud made two baskets and one free throw ending the half.

Trailing 6 to 3, with but three minutes left to play, Capt. Hill and his teammates staged one of the most thrilling, whirlwind rallies ever seen in this district, scoring three points and tying the score as the half ended.

In the extra five minutes the local second cagers scored three ringers while St. Cloud was able to score only one. The game ended 12 to 8.

The line-up:

Brainerd St. Cloud
Hill (Capt.) Hicks
Hendrickson Fricker
Hess Wellman
Heikkanen Schredruger
Sargent Hart

Summary—Substitutes, St. Cloud Anderson for Fricker; Mertes for Hart. Free throws: Brainerd Hill 2 out of 5; St. Cloud Hicks 2 out of 5. Field goals: Brainerd Hill 2, Hess 3; St. Cloud Wellman 2, Hicks 1.

Referee—Dunnewald, St. Cloud Normal.

Scorer—L. Jones, Brainerd. Timekeeper—Gemmell, Brainerd.

Pueblo-Type Cottages Are Cement.

All the quaint charm of the old pueblo style of architecture is preserved in concrete in a series of little cottages now under construction in Monrovia, Cal. The one-story buildings are most remarkable for their complete use of cement, woodwork being practically eliminated. Even the roofs are concrete, and the doors are made of magnesite, according to an illustrated article in the January Popular Mechanics Magazine. The poured walls, five inches thick, inclose a web of waterproofing material, while the cement floors are stained in Spanish-leather effect, waxed and polished. The little structures are wholly fireproof, and easy cleaning is assured by the absence of moldings, casing and baseboards. Inclosed courts off the kitchen and sleeping chambers, partly roofed and partly screened, provide outdoor protection and privacy.

Grammatical Controversy.

The controversy as to the propriety of using "It is me" instead of "It is I" is several centuries old. It arose from the fact that from the earliest times there was in use in the languages of Europe two sounds that served to indicate the person speaking. In English they appear as "I" and "me," the older form of "I" being "Ic." In the vernacular of England both forms of the phrase are used, but "It is me" finds greater favor, if one may take literature as indicating preference. Notwithstanding the fact, the grammarians have arrayed themselves against it. Considered etymologically, the correct form is "It am I," and this is the way in which the phrase was used by Chaucer in "The Knights Tale" lines 1463 and 1738.—Literary Digest.

Chaldeans Promised a Measure of Independence Under the Guiding Hand of France.

The American army officer, chosen by the Chaldeans to present their appeal for independence to the council of allied premiers, reports that he has been unable to get a hearing for that ancient people. "They made some attempt during the peace conference to obtain consideration, having heard that 'self determination' was to be a guiding principle in the settlement of the world's affairs. Those at Versailles who had some familiarity with Biblical history may have recalled the Chaldeans, of course, but they failed to make an impression on minds surcharged with acute problems of twentieth-century statesmanship.

The Chaldeans, or Babylonians, however, may count on being better off than has been their lot for many centuries. They will get some benefit from the new era. Residing in northern Mesopotamia, which France now will control—the southern region being confided to Great Britain—they will be freed from their old oppressors, the Turks, and the French government has indicated a purpose to give them a measure of autonomy. The Chaldeans were once a warlike people, capable of demanding what they desired. More than 1,000,000 of them are now said to be dwelling in the region that will be redeemed from Turkey.

What the Public Wants.

Theatrical Manager—Well! What do you want?
Playwright—Sir, I've written a play.

"Everybody's doing that. Get out!"
"It has a bathtub in it—"
"Yes? Have a chair."
"And a bedroom—"
"Here's a cigar."
"And a young girl and a minister."
"Have a couple of cigars."
"In the third act—the big one—the minister is stricken with remorse."
"With what?"
"With remorse. He regrets his weakness."
"Sorry, young man, but that kind of play doesn't go. I'm busy."
"I forgot to tell you that the minister is already married to another woman."
"Here's all the money I've got for advance royalty."—Life.

Possibly.

LAID BIBLE SCENES IN CHINA

Native Artist Had No Conception of Any Other Land Outside of His Own.

In north Fukien province there dwelt an artist who painted pictures on silk for the gentry of his little village. The people in this secluded hamlet nestled amid the hills, had never seen automobiles or airplanes, nor did they take the long journey to Shanghai to watch the great steamers come in laden with merchandise and messages from the ports of the world. But they knew the words of Confucius and Lao-tse and they lived and died with simple dignity as their fathers had done before them. One evening the artist, who had been working all day on a memorial portrait, strolled out into the dark, cool street to refresh his tired soul, writes Elsie F. Well in Asia Magazine. The tiny white church of the foreign god beyond the tea shop was brilliantly lighted. The artist stood a moment in the open door. The young missionary was talking most eloquently; he was not preaching, but he seemed to be telling stories that were as fascinating as those recited in the bazaars. Almost in spite of himself the artist sank unobtrusively into an empty seat. For the first time he heard some of the beautiful old stories of the Bible, which have held the people of the West enthralled for 2,000 years. And the artist returned to his home and made pictures of the story of Noah and the flood, and of the parables of the lost sheep and of the prodigal son and of many others that were in the book of the western missionary. But he had never heard of the Palestine. To him Noah was Chinese, and the lost sheep belonged to a farmer of his province and the prodigal son might well have been a dissolute youth of his own village.

Mesmerism Named From Charlatan.

The word "mesmerism," meaning some form of hypnosis, came from a man who asserted at one time that he was a discoverer of the phenomenon. Frederic Antoine Mesmer came to public attention in Paris in 1778. The secrets of hypnotism have been known to a greater or less number of persons almost since the dawn of civilization, but being an uncertain science, it frequently was forgotten or discarded except by a small group of priests or wizards. Mesmer undoubtedly began in good faith, and with a real desire to aid suffering humanity. His hypnotic "cures" did just what similar "cures" do today—that is they were of benefit in certain forms of mental and nervous diseases.

Now get the same cut service as the big city dailies.

We have made arrangements with the Murray Illustrated Advertising Company of New York, for the furnishing of cuts for advertising purposes absolutely free to our patrons. This service is the best in America and has as clients some of the largest newspapers published.

Never before has it been possible for a paper to furnish this service without a considerable added outlay on the part of the advertiser, and even now it is only offered to the paper recognized by advertisers and readers as the leader in its section.

The Dispatch buys the cuts; the advertiser pays for the space in the paper at the same rate as for other advertising. Many of our patrons have already taken advantage of this offer and others are invited to do so.

We will be glad to explain the matter more fully
